

2019 Per- and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances: Second National Conference

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

See our website for more information: www.pfasproject.com

DAY 1 – Monday, June 10, 2019

8:00-8:30 Registration and breakfast

8:30-9:00 Greetings and overview

9:00-9:45 Keynote

Linda Birnbaum, Director, National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences

9:45-11:00 Session 1: Social and Scientific Discover

Arlene Blum (Green Science Policy Institute), Sharon Lerner (The Intercept)

11:00-11:30 Break

11:30-12:45 Session 2: Manufacturing exposures – PFOA/PFOS

David Bond (Bennington College); Bob Delaney (Michigan DEQ); Jenny Carney and Sandy Wynn-Stelt (House Street Community)

12:45-2:00 Lunch

2:00-3:30 Session 3: First Responders

Rob Bilott (Taft Law), Graham Peaslee (University of Notre Dame), Brian Grubb (International Association Fire Fighters Local F88), Krystle Mitchell (South Australian Metropolitan Fire Service), Miriam Calkins (National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health)

3:30-5:00 Session 4: AFFF-Impacted Sites

Chris Higgins (Colorado School of Mines), Pat Breysse (Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry), Mark Favors (Fountain Valley Clean Water), Kyle Bagenstose (Bucks County Courier Times), Maureen Sullivan (Department of Defense)

Dinner on your own, but interest groups may plan ahead to have their own dinner groups

2019 Per- and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances: Second National Conference

DAY 2 - Tuesday, June 11, 2019

8:00-8:30 Registration and Breakfast

8:30-9:45 Session 6: Political-Economy
Ken Cook (Environmental Working Group), Rebecca Altman (writer), Laura Rabinow (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute), Anthony Gutierrez (Union of Concerned Scientists)

9:45-11:00 Session 7: Manufacturing Sites – Beyond PFOA/PFOS
Emily Donovan (Clean Cape Fear), Detlef Knappe (North Carolina State University), Annie Risen (North Carolina Department of Environmental Quality), Laura Facciolo (Mamme No PFAS)

11:00-11:30 Break

11:30-12:45 Session 8: Regulatory Landscape
Erik Olson (or other representative, Natural Resources Defense Council); Gloria Post (New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection), Sarah Doll (Safer States), Anthony Spaniola (Need Our Water)

12:45-2:00 Lunch

2:00-3:15 Session 9: Medical Monitoring and Working with Health Professionals
Julie Brody (Silent Spring Institute), Alan Ducatman (West Virginia University), Laura Anderko (Georgetown University)

3:15-4:45 Session 10: Workshops

- i. Drinking water treatment and remediation
- ii. State water advisories and regulations
- iii. Living with PFAS: community experiences
- iv. Federal agency research overview
- v. Considerations for local health studies
- vi. Media

4:45-5:15 Break

5:15-6:15 Conference Consensus Statement workshop

2019 Per- and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances: Second National Conference

DAY 3 – Wednesday, June 12, 2019

8:00-8:30 Registration and Breakfast

8:30-9:15 Keynote

Gina McCarthy, Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health

9:15-10:30 Session 11: New insights into exposure sources

Rainer Lohmann (University of Rhode Island), Andrea Tokranov (USGS), Laurel Schaidler (Silent Spring Institute), Amila De Silva (Environment Canada), Carla Ng (University of Pittsburgh)

10:30-11:00 Break and Poster Session #1

11:00-12:30 Session 12: New insights into risks to human health

Angela Slitt (University of Rhode Island), Shuk-mei Ho (University of Cincinnati), Philippe Grandjean (Harvard School of Public Health/University of Southern Denmark), Amalie Timmermann (Denmark), Qi Sun (Harvard School of Public Health), Suzanne Fenton (NIEHS)

12:30-1:00 Poster Session #2

1:00-2:00 Lunch

2-3:15 Session 13: Linking science to regulation and community health

Antonia Calafat (CDC), Jamie DeWitt (Eastern Carolina University), Gary Ginsberg (New York Department of Health), Xenia Trier (EEA), Tony Fletcher (London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine)

3:15-3:30 Break

3:30-5:00 Session 14: Waste Exposures

Patrick MacRoy (Environmental Health Strategy Center), Johnsie Lang (US Environmental Protection Agency), Mindi Messmer (New Hampshire Safe Water Alliance), Kay Fritz (Michigan Department of Agriculture & Rural Development)

5:00-5:45 Closing session and call to action